TIMELESS SETTING FOR EVERY OCCASION

WHERE HISTORY MEETS EXCEPTIONAL EVENTS

Nestled in the heart of historic Chester, just moments from the city's iconic city walls and directly opposite Chester Railway Station, The Queen at Chester Hotel offers a distinctive destination for meetings, conferences, celebrations and unforgettable occasions.

As part of Accor's Handwritten Collection, our beautifully restored Victorian landmark blends timeless heritage with contemporary hospitality, creating experiences that are personal, authentic and effortlessly memorable.

Home to eight versatile meeting and event spaces, The Queen at Chester Hotel can accommodate everything from intimate board meetings and training sessions to large-scale conferences, gala dinners and private celebrations. Our elegant Colonnades Suite hosts up to 400 delegates, while a variety of flexible rooms provide the perfect setting for workshops, networking events, exhibitions and executive meetings. Each space combines period character with modern technology, ensuring your event is both inspiring and seamlessly delivered.

Our dedicated Meetings & Events team works alongside you from enquiry through to delivery, providing a personalised service and meticulous attention to detail. With exceptional catering, flexible event packages and thoughtful hospitality, we ensure every occasion exceeds expectations.

Whether you're bringing colleagues together, celebrating life's milestones or hosting clients in one of Chester's most iconic hotels, The Queen at Chester offers a setting where history, elegance and exceptional service come together to create truly memorable events.

MEET. CONNECT. CELEBRATE.

Great events begin with great connections. At The Queen at Chester, Handwritten Collection by Accor, distinctive spaces, warm hospitality and a sense of place come together to create memorable meetings, meaningful moments and celebrations worth sharing.

MEET
